

For the Whig Standard.

BLADENSBURG, Sept. 11, 1844.

Mr. Editor: Some friend sent me, by the mail of this morning, a daily Globe of the 9th instant, for the purpose, I presume, of calling my attention to an extract of a letter, dated from this place, of the 7th inst., published therein, purporting to give a correct version of our pole-raising the day previous in honor of the glorious whig cause.

The whole communication, from beginning to end, I pronounce a tissue of slander; and was it intended for this meridian alone, I would not condescend to notice it. I have also heard several of the Loco party here stigmatize it as false.

As to its first assertion, of 30 voters, all told, being present at the raising, I assure you, in convention, that a gentleman present counted 65 assisting, and two hours after, 112 good and true Whigs sat down to a sumptuous supper prepared by that sterling whig host, Thos. Baldwin. Our meeting was afterward ably and eloquently addressed by Messrs. Gheislin, Granger, and Stephen.

So, also, as to the stab in the dark, intended to injure the good name of our worthy Postmaster. And now mark how an unvarnished tale will put it down. The facts and circumstances are these: on Thursday, the Odd Fellows, being visited by their brethren from Washington city, had a procession in our village. From the Odd Fellows' Hall, adjoining the post office, a flag was hoisted, with nine stars and stripes upon it. Never having seen a national flag with that number of stars and stripes, the Postmaster supposed it to be a flag of the I. O. O. F. After several inquiries as to its design, he was informed by the oldest "democrat" in town, that he supposed it represented the eight Southern States and Texas. The Postmaster jocularly remarked to an Odd Fellow that a disunion flag was an improper flag for Odd Fellows to parade under, or words to that effect. The flag here alluded to is not the one that was attached to the hickory pole on Friday.

So, again, as to the charge against Col. Pratt's being opposed to reform. To this, it is only necessary to remark, that Dr. Day was in the Maryland Legislature but one year, (1833) and made, as the doctor himself says, a speech deprecating the then contemplated reform, and was mainly instrumental in its defeat. Now, Colonel Pratt, three years afterwards, was one of the Electoral College who so nobly stood by the then constitution of our gallant State, and prevented its overthrow by the Jackson, now Locofoco, party; and before that college adjourned, voted for the Whig Senate, who afterwards made and passed our present liberal and reformed Constitution, which, for the first time in the annals of Maryland, gave to the people the right of electing their Governor and Senate.

I would, Mr. Editor, here stop short, having carried out this communication too far already; but I will first tell the Locos that the strength of the whig party in these diggings is rather on the increase than wane. Their rabid doings may be attributed to a recent change from Locofocoism to Whiggery of one of their most respectable and influential men in this place, to whom some of the faithful paid a visit as soon as the matter was out, and from all accounts, they were sent off with a "flea in their ear."

And now, Mr. Editor, what will be your amusement when I inform you that the writer of the letter to which this is an answer, is believed to be the same person who informed one of our most distinguished candidates, on the very day it was penned, that he intended to vote the whole Whig ticket, save one, at the October election. This, you will agree with me, is consistency with a vengeance.

TEXAS.

The schooner Star, of Texas, arrived at our port on Saturday morning, in twelve days from Galveston, having on board Mr. E. O. Carr, bearer of despatches for the United States Government, and for the British and French ministers at Washington city. The despatches are believed to refer to the rumored invasion of Texas by Gen. Woll, with an army of 10,000 men. We say "rumored" because nothing positive is known—all is conjecture and surmise. We took some pains yesterday to inquire into the validity of the reports that were current, and could trace them to no authentic source. We believe that, whatever may be the designs of Mexico, the invasion had not taken place when the Star left Galveston.

P. S. Since the above was written we learn that Mr. Carr knows nothing about the 10,000 men reported to be at the Rio Grande. The first intimation he had of their being there has been in the New Orleans papers.—New Orleans Bee of the 10th.

DEATH OF WM. CHILTON ALLAN, THE SCULPTOR.—Our readers will regret to hear that William Chilton Allan, son of the Hon. Chilton Allan, is dead. He died on the 6th instant, at the residence of his father, in Winchester, Ky., in his 19th year. He was one of the most gifted young artists our country has produced, and was thoroughly devoted to his noble art, the study of which he was prosecuting when Death laid his cold hand upon him.

THE SUSPECTED SLAVE TRADERS.—The Boston Advertiser says that an examination has been made of the cargoes of the schooners Manchester and Devereux, of and from Baltimore, which were seized on Wednesday by order of the collector of Boston, on suspicion of their being fitted out for the slave trade; but nothing has yet been discovered to sustain the accusation. The examination has not been completed. One of the schooners is a mere pilot-boat; the other is larger.

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA.—If we read the history of disorders we are astonished that men live; if of cures we are still more astonished that they die. And yet in fact nearly all diseases have a common origin, viz: in the organs which prepare and modify the blood, and a remedy, directed to the seat of disease, will remove a host of phenomena. It is the peculiar characteristic of Sands's Sarsaparilla, that its searching operation reaches the causes of disease, and the cures it performs are therefore radical and thorough. The health of the human system depends almost entirely upon the state of the blood. If the vitalizing fluid which pervades every tissue, every membrane, fibre, filament, gland, or other organ, primary or subsidiary—if the body be charged with the elements of disease, sickness must be the consequence, and until the causes of disease existing in the blood, are eradicated, no permanent relief can be expected. It is here that the powerful health restoring properties of Sands's Sarsaparilla are manifested; and for this reason, in Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and all eruptive diseases, as well as in all derangements of the secretory organs, it is considered infallible.

Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, by A. B. & D. SANDS, Wholesale Druggists, 79 Fulton st., New York. Price $1 per bottle; 6 bottles for $5. Agents for Washington city.—ROBERT FARNHAM, Bookseller, corner of Pennsylvania Avenue and 11th Street, and R. S. PATTERSON, Druggist, corner of Pennsylvania Avenue and 9th Street.

LOCAL NEWS.

THE CLAY CLUB MEETING.

The meeting last night was one of uncommon interest and enthusiasm, and was attended by not less than four hundred ladies. Besides excellent speeches from Messrs. Preuss and J. L. Dorsey, of Maryland, and Messrs. Bradley and Lenox, of this city, the meeting was entertained by the Glee Club with several new songs, executed in a manner which cannot be excelled; among them was the favorite song of "Here's to you, Harry Clay," full of noble sentiment. The meeting closed with "three loud huzzas."

NAVAL COURT MARTIAL.

A Naval Court Martial convened at the Navy Yard in this city on yesterday, composed of the following officers:

Commodore Stewart, President; Commodores Downes, Nicholson, Read, and Ridgely, and Captains Latimer and Gwinn, Members. Robert Ould, Esq., of Georgetown, Judge Advocate.

It is understood, says the Madonian, that the Court has been ordered for the trial of Captain Newton, late commanding the unfortunate Missouri, and such other persons as may be brought before it. Others, besides Captain Newton, it is said, will be tried by the Court.

MR. EDITOR: I am a victim! yes, a victim to a sponge! a newspaper sponge—a friend who calls at my place of business each afternoon just before your carrier, and stands ready to receive the "Standard," before I can get my hands on it, and actually keeps me waiting for half an hour to get a look at my own paper, while he goes through the news. What is to be done? I have stood it more than a month. How much longer ought I to submit to it before I kick him out? My sufferings is intolerable. Can't you help me!

Yours truly, SEVENTH STREET, September 10, 1844.

We sympathize with our friend, and think he has borne it long enough, and that the time has arrived "to kick him out;" if he is too mean to subscribe for it he deserves to be kicked out; if he is too poor we'll furnish him one gratis.

A special meeting of the Clay Club will be held on to-morrow, (Wednesday,) evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock, at the Club House.

Members of the Club, and persons wishing to join, only, will be admitted.

By order: JNO. T. TOWERS, A. B. CLAYTON, Secretaries.

The protracted meeting is still going on at the Methodist Protestant Church, 9th Street. Several Ministers will be in attendance. Preaching on every evening through the week, (except Saturday) at 7 1/2 o'clock. Prayer meeting every morning, at six o'clock. The public are invited to attend. Doors open at 7 o'clock. sep17

It has been estimated that upwards of FIFTY THOUSAND persons have supplied themselves with Clothing, at unprecedented low rates, at

WILLIAM MARSHALL'S

Fashionable Clothing Emporium and Tailoring Establishment, Washington, D. C.

The reasons why clothing can be sold at these establishments so much lower than at any other place are these: 1st. Our retail sales are about ten times the amount of any other in this city. 2dly. We do a sole cash business, consequently the purchaser does not have to pay for do-it-yourself clothes. 3dly. The proprietor has had twenty years' experience in the business, and buys all the goods himself for cash. Those gentlemen who have been in the habit of ordering their clothes at Merchant Tailors, and their bills sent in twice a year, have found they can make a saving of about ONE HALF, by paying cash down, at

WILLIAM MARSHALL'S;

and can get a garment made in as good style, or a little better. For these reasons I am enabled to sell at EXTRA LOW PRICES. All custom work is made by Journeymen Tailors, and we employ none but the MOST SCIENTIFIC CUTTERS.
